

Fellowships and Community Initiatives

- Faith and Humanity
- Religion and Society
- Ethics and Morality
- Civic and Community Relations
- Spirituality and Psychology
- Politics and Government
- Economics and Financial
- Law and Penalty
- Education and Technology
- Transportation and Transit
- Business and Development
- Race and Diversity
- Sacred and Profane
- Communications and Media
- Poverty and the Poor
- Parity and Prosperity
- Women of Faith

Religions of the World and their Symbols

AUGUSTA'S INTERFAITH COALITION

795 Eve Street *
Augusta, GA 30901

Office: (706) 225-8938
E-mail: info@augustavote.com

Website: www.augustavote.com

The Augusta's Interfaith Coalition

Religion and Society

THE AUGUSTA'S INTERFAITH COALITION GET-OUT-TO-VOTE

795 Eve Street
Augusta, GA 30901
(706) 225-8938
“www.augustavote.com”

AUGUSTA'S
INTERFAITH
GET OUT TO VOTE

Our objective is to present an academic, intentional, pragmatic, reflective, scholarly, and theological discourse of religion and its influence, implication and involvement in society as a community service organization

AUGUSTA'S INTERFAITH COALITION

Our Mission:

To Strive for 100% Citizen and Voter Participation in the democratic system of informed voting and activism as a community service organization"

The interaction between religion and society

Membership:

Membership into the Augusta's Interfaith Coalition is open to all individuals who subscribe to our mission and purpose. Membership is loosely defined because we do not expect every member to have one set of involvement nor one agreeable position.

The challenge for membership is to hold firm a theological perspective that anything affecting humanity and society, whether religious, legal, political, social, psychological, economic, financial, discriminatory, medical or other entity is an interest of the Augusta's Interfaith Coalition.

"Theology is not just about God. It is also about us. We live out of our understanding of who we are in relationship to God, to one another, and to the world"

Who we are?

The Augusta's Interfaith Coalition celebrates religious freedom by championing individual rights, promoting policies that protect both religion and democracy, and uniting diverse voices to challenge extremism and complacency in the Augusta - Richmond County and surrounding areas.

Who we are not?

The Augusta's Interfaith Coalition and its members are not rubber stamps for politicians and policies. We believe that it is our spiritual responsibility to define our purpose and to pronounce our positions.

What We Believe?

- We believe that religious freedom is a foundation for American democracy.
- We believe that individual rights and matters of personal conscience must be held sacred.
- We believe that religious and political extremists are a threat to individual liberty and democracy.
- We believe that anything affecting humanity and society, whether religious, legal, political, social, psychological, economic, financial, discriminatory, medical or other entity is an interest of the Augusta's Interfaith Coalition.
- We believe that celebrating religious and cultural difference is the way to achieve a vibrant community.

Focal Groups and

Fellowship Interests

Faith and Humanity * Religion and Society * Ethics and Morality * Civic and Community Relations * Spirituality and Psychology * Politics and Government * Economics and Financial * Law and Penalty * Education and Technology * Women of Faith

The symbols of fourteen religions are shown. Clockwise from the North Pole, they are: Baha'i, Buddhism, Christianity, Confucianism, Hinduism, Islam, Jainism, Judaism, Shinto, Sikhism, Taoism, Wicca and some other Neopagan religions, Zoroastrianism, and Druidism.